

Members of Spade & Trowel Garden Club decorated the historic Ross Mansion and a tree at the Ross Station Event Center for the holidays after two days of making wreaths, cemetery mounds and centerpieces, etc., for their greens sale. A framed sign at the entrance gives decorating credit to the club.

The Christmas tree is in the parlor.

The tree below is in the Ross Event Center.

