

At its Christmas tea, members of the Spade & Trowel Garden Club donated materials for 63 gift bags which were delivered to Lofland Park Center, a skilled nursing facility in Seaford, Delaware. Staff will distribute the bags on Christmas Eve, along with donations from other organizations and individuals. Shirley Steele was in the lobby as the presents were delivered. Estimated cost was more than $300, all donated by the 21 members who attended the tea.